Dear Parents:

We would like to take this opportunity to express our pleasure in being able to serve the students of this district. We are proud of our accomplishments over the years but eagerly look forward to the challenges of the future. We believe in quality education and we think that the movement toward education in the 21st century is exciting and challenging.

The handbook this sheet came from sets rule infractions for which your student may be disciplined. You SHOULD read the handbook. Act 104 of 1983 requires that you acknowledge receipt of the handbook. Please contact the building principal if you have any questions.
